A FRUITFUL REVIVAL.

Elder Warren Adds Thirteen Persons to the Church.

Elder D. B. Warren of West Plains closed a very successful meeting of twelve days at the Christian church Wednesday night. There were thirteen additions to the church. They are: Mrs. J. B. Kauffman, by statement, and Misses Effie Lane, Grace McCans, Dixie Potter, Minnie Baker, Maude Smith, Jettie Morgan, Stella Proctor, Annie Barker, Edna Baker, Willie Rockwell, Emma Kauffman and Mr. Welch. Elder Warren is a pulpit orator of rare powers, and a pleasant and attractive gentleman. He left for his home at West Plains to-day.

The Baptist congregation began a series of meetings at their church Sunday night that will continue indefinitely.

Rev. J. A. Russell conducted a series of meetings at the Methodist church the first few nights of last week and the last nights of the week before.

The New Candidate.

W. R. Robbins this week announces as a candidate for constable of Lorraine township. He is a firm, clever gentleman, and would make a good officer. He was a candidate four years ago, and carried a good vote.

This paper today presents to the people the name of Anderson Mitchell for the office of probate judge. Mr. Mitchell is a simon pure Democrat, and deserves careful consideration. He was for six years public administrator of the county, is acquainted with the work of the office, and is well fitted for the discharge of its duties. He is a successful farmer and a worthy man.

Judge John J. Long today announces that he is a candidate for election to the office of judge of the county court for the second district. Judge Long is one of German township's most prominent men. He has been on the bench two years, and has guarded carefully the people's interests, caution and sound judgement characterizing every action.

A. P. Crader this week announces for constable of this township. He is an energetic young man, and deserves your support for the office. He was a candidate for the office two years ago, and carried a good vote.

For justice of this township B. L. Bowman asks for re-election. His conduct of the office has been fair and judicious, and no better man could be elected.

For re-election to the office of treasurer A. S. Perkins today announces his name. Mr. Perkins has performed the duties of the office for one term in a highly satisfactory and business like manner. He made a record as assessor that stands well against that of any other man. He was a teacher in the county several years, and is one of our best farmers.

A Big Mill Company.

Special to the Press.

OAK RIDGE, Mo., April 20.—A milling company with a $10,000 stock was organized here yesterday. The board of directors is: F. Teiderman, D. B. Seibert, of Jackson; F. A. Bollinger, J. W. Roberts, and G. D. Statler, of this place. F. A. Bollinger is president and G. D. Statler is secretary.

The company has a building and part of the necessary machinery. Other necessary machinery will be put in at once. The capacity of the mill will be 150 barrels.

Not Much Work.

The county Board of Appeals was in session last Monday. They spent an uninteresting day, as but one appeal was made. The Board reduced the assessments on 80 acres of Eliza McKelvey's land 7 miles west of town from $400 to $250.

LET US HAVE LIGHT.

The Twin Cities Should Have Street Lamps.

To the Town Board:

The Twin Cities should be well lighted. The people look to you to supply them. A few private individuals have supplied lights in front of their places of business, but the public needs light on the streets.

From sixteen to twenty lights will be sufficient to light the towns. They can be placed at a cost not exceeding four and a half dollars each, and can be maintained at a cost of not exceeding one dollar each per month.

If they are put in it is your matter as to where they are located, but this suggestion is offered: One at High and Walnut, one at High and Water, one at Water, North and Walnut, one at High and Broadway, one at High, North and Vine, one at Second and Broadway, and one on Vine near the Presbyterian church, one at Main and Crown, one at Main and Union, one on Main at Clarks hardware, one at Union and second, one at Crown and Second one at Crown and Third, one on Crowe near Burfords, and one at the depot.

Please consider this matter Mr. Trustees.

For Teachers.

The course of work for pupils who enter the Normal at Cape Girardeau for the present term, commencing April 10, was arranged specially for teachers. You can get a vast deal of assistance in the work by attending teachers.

Not that Bad.

Bollinger county's strawberry crop has been ruined by late frosts. If this proves to be so, it will be the second successive crop there that has failed. Lutesville berries are the best in the state.—Charleston Democrat.

You are wrong, Brother Tetwiler. Only about one-third of the berries are killed, and perhaps not that.

Still They Come.

Stone, Douglas and Ozark counties have instructed for Marsh Arnold for Congress, and Toney elected an Arnold delegation. Last Saturday New Madrid county sent her twelve delegates instructed for "The Little Giant."

A Boy Killed.

Special to the Press.

CHARLESTON, April 22.—Leslie Rachels, a small boy at this place was killed by a moving freight train yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock. He attempted to jump on a box car in the train, but fell to the track and one leg was cut off. He died at 7:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Collins Dead.

Mrs. Sarah A. Collins died at the home of Dr. A. R. Jaques on Crown and Second streets last Monday morning at 7 o'clock, after only a few days illness. Funeral services were conducted at the Methodist church Tuesday afternoon, and the remains were interred in the Slaybaugh cemetery.

Mrs. Collins was a daughter of Dr. A. R. Jaques and the mother of John A. Collins. She was a firm Christian, a member of the Presbyterian church.

Did You Do It.

The 25,000 persons who paid 10 cents each to kiss the Blarney Stone on the Midway Plaisance, World's Fair will no doubt be amused when informed that the rock was not brought from Ireland at all, but was simply a piece of limestone taken from one of the streets of Chicago. This fact has been unearthed by treasury officials in checking up the custom duty on Countess Aberdeen's Irish Village.—Ex.

Did any of our Bollinger County visitors kiss it?

A TICKET OUT.

The Populists are in the County Race.

The Populists of Bollinger county, sixteen in number met in mass meeting at the court house last Saturday. W. W. Kinder, manager of the Jackson Comet addressed the meeting. The meeting was very harmonious. There was every reason for it. There were just enough offices to go around among those present, with two exceptions, and they did not want county office.

Organization was effected by electing A. L. Gibbs chairman and R. J. Hughey secretary. The following nominations were made: Representative, A. L. Gibbs; Sheriff, Asa Stepp; Collector, P. A. Huffer; County clerk, T. H. Snider; Circuit clerk, J. R. Hughey; Assessor, W. W. J. Poston; Treasurer, George Miller; Probate judge, W. J. Hightower; Presiding judge, L. Yount; Judge first district, W. H. Scott; Judge second district, P. S. Huffman. For coroner Dr. S. M. McAnally was nominated. This was an error, as no coroner is to be elected.

Whitewater lodge A. F. & A. M. recently adopted the following resolutions:

Whereas, God has removed from earth Brother A. D. Kegley, this lodge, as a tribute to his valuable services in this lodge records its appreciation.

Every merchant and business and professional firm in the Twin Cities should be represented in its columns. Come early and get choice of position.

He is Removed.

Miss Hattie Dunlap gave a very pleasant party to her little friends last Saturday night. Only about a dozen were present, but they spent a very pleasant evening.

TOLD HIM TO LEAVE.

But Bridges Did Not do So. He Did Something Else.

Constable J. M. Slinkard last Wednesday night arrested John Clubb, John Barker, W. L. Abner and Ily Phillips, on warrants sworn out before Justice Bowman by Irvin Bridges. They are charged with disturbing the latter's peace, and it is said there are about a score more of young men in the matter.

As the story goes, a crowd of young men went to Bridges home 12 miles southwest of Marble Hill on the night of April 13, a la white-cap, and gave him notice to leave the country or suffer consequences. It is claimed that they accuse Bridges of being a hog thief. Bridges did not leave, but came to town and swore out six warrants, four of which have been served.

The First Game.

The opening game of the baseball season was played by the Browns and the Pittsburghs at St. Louis last Thursday. The Browns won by a score of 11 to 3. About 9,000 people saw the game. The Browns are a very strong team this year, and bid fair to capture the league championship. They stand sixth but are doing some good playing.

It Was Knocked Out.

Last Thursday the supreme court of South Carolina decided that the dispensary law, recently adopted in that state is unconstitutional because it gives the state a monopoly of the liquor business. Tillman the nervous governor of that state has enforced the law with such rigor that he forced the miniature civil war that our readers well remember, a few weeks ago.

A Sleep walker Hurt.

On Sunday before last F. L. Stewart, a passenger on the cannon ball walked out of a car door and stepped off the platform, just as the train was starting out of DeSoto. He was walking in his sleep. He was fatally injured, and died just before the train reached Piedmont. He was a mason.

A Leg Hurt.

While plowing in his field near town Monday, J. R. Thompson accidentally dropped a large double shovel plow against his right leg between the knee and the ankle. The wound is very painful, but not dangerous.

The Commonweal.

The various armies of the unemployed throughout the United States that are now marching to Washington number about 5,000. They all expect to reach Washington by May 1, and then request congress to pass several laws that they will propose, looking to the betterment of their condition. The commissioners of the district of Columbia have issued a manifesto requesting them not to come to Washington. The movement is creating some uneasiness in Washington, and is attracting the attention of the Senate and House.

RAIDED THE DIVE.

Police Find Strange Companions at the Cape.

Special to the Press.

CAPE GIRARDEAU, April 22.—The police raided a bawdy house near the old pottery, between Good Hope and Merriweather streets last night about 9 o'clock. Four women and six men were captured, and it is said that one of them was a married man and a prominent business man of this place.

The place has been a nuisance for some time, and the raid resulted.

They Raped a Child.

Coon Owens and Hugh Justice are in jail at Kennett and Bill Harris is out on bond charged with raping a 13 year old girl named Hammon, the daughter of a widow, four miles north of Malden a week or more ago.

Harris is a married man, and as reported, gave the girl 50 cents to go to his home, and attend to children, and while Justice was taking her there on a horse they were met by the other two, and the crime committed. The men acknowledge that they did it, but claim that the girl consented.

What She Offers You.

Miss Rosa Fischer has returned from St. Louis with her new millinery goods. She invites all to call and see the latest styles and learn prices, which will be sure to please you. Her trimming is the most artistic. Hats on short notice, at the stone house.

Will have Waterworks.

Poplar Bluff has voted a levee for waterworks, and Dudley & Co., of St. Louis will put in the plant soon.

Will Not be a Candidate.

To my friends who so earnestly supported me four years ago, and to those who have promised to assist me in the primary election this year, I wish to express my heartfelt thanks. I shall always have the deepest sense of gratitude for being so honored.

I will not have the time or means to make the race as I expected to, and will consequently not be a candidate for circuit clerk and recorder. To the Democratic party I would say, nominate men in whom the people have confidence and every man who is a Democrat will support the principles of the party, which the ticket represents, and we will again roll up our old time majority. You will always find me ready and willing to defend those principals and work for the success of the party.

Very Respectfully Yours,

JOHN P. McMANUS.

He Thanks Them.

There is no doubt but that the Southeast Mo. Press Association is now securely and permanently established. We cannot but recall the meeting of one year ago at Poplar Bluff when the editors—seven in number, and three of them of this city—met in the Morris house sample rooms and talked of things eternal and internal, and then retired to Frank's soda fountain and refreshed with cooling Bethesda, etc., etc. It would not have taken a thing bigger than a load of hay, on that memorable night, to have discouraged those four faithful editors who gathered here to meet the Southeast Press Association and found it not, but they didn't discourage, and out of that meeting has grown a great and powerful organization. To Tom Allen and Grant Tetwiler and John Martin and Mr. Wright we extend congratulations. May you live and prosper.—Poplar Bluff Citizen.

Thanks, Bro. Hoag. We could not be at DeSoto, will be on hand at Bismark.
